Mrs. Kennington's fifth-grade class will be attending a production of the Broadway musical The Lion King on March 25 to conclude their study of the theatre. As you are probably aware, the play is based on the 1994 Disney film about a young lion's coming-of-age struggles.

Attending the play will give the fifth-graders a real sense of New York theater. The production will be at the New Amsterdam Theatre, built in 1903 and for years considered the most major on 42nd Street. With its recent renovation, it has been restored almost to its original grandeur. The theatre is best known as the home of the Ziegfeld Follies (1913 through 1927) and George M. Cohan's Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway.

The students are very excited about the possibility of attending a live Broadway production. Please provide me with the requested information as soon as possible so that the necessary arrangements can be made. Thank you for helping chaperone the fifth-grade class on their field trip to Broadway. When I visited Mrs. Kennington's classroom yesterday, the children were still excited about having attended the play. Their thank-you note is enclosed.

Thank you again for accepting the challenge of watching over the fifth-graders on their exciting trip to Broadway. I know the task wasn't easy, but I felt it was well worth our time.
